The Harley Owners Club will be presenting a unique 'cheque' to the Tim Parry Johnathan Ball Trust this Wednesday.

The 'cheque' has been made out of half a petrol tank taken from a Harley bike. One half will be presented to Trust founders Colin and Wendy Parry and the other half will be kept by the owners of the Ferry Tavern.

The Harley Owners Club celebrated their 10th anniversary with a bike show at the Ferry Tavern and raised money for the Trust, which runs educational peace programmes for young people and adults.

Organisers of the fundraising event, Dave Cook and Ken Stoll, from the Harley Owners Club will present the cheque to Colin and Wendy on Wednesday evening at the Ferry Tavern.

Location: Ferry Tavern, Penketh
Time: 7.30pm
